ELEVEN NEW ELKS

MEMBERS ENJOY JINKS PROGRAM AND RECEIVE NEW APPLICATIONS

At the regular meeting of the local Elks' Lodge on Monday evening, eleven new members were duly initiated and seven applications for membership were received. Following were the members added to the roster:

K. E. Nash, C. E. Markey, Thara C. Ostrander, Tommie A. Clark, Lonon T. Rowley, J. Irving Bailey, T. C. Law, Charles C. Claggett, George W. Fehlhaber, Charles Alvin Gee, W. G. Bramman.

The meeting was followed by a program furnished by singers and other entertainers in the jinks' hall. The committee of arrangements for the New Year's eve dinner dance announced reservations filled applications for places having come in so thick and fast. About two hundred were present at the Monday evening meeting.

MR. AND MRS. BOOTH SELL

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth have sold their home at 1729 Gardena Avenue to a Mr. Humbert who came to Glendale from Oklahoma and who has been living on Gardena in a rented house which he must vacate because it has been sold. He liked the neighborhood, however, and liked the Booth house, and it was not hard for all the parties interested to come together. While in some ways it is a wrench for the Booths to part with a place which they have beautified with trees and flowers in which they have taken great pleasure, they desired to live nearer their business on East Broadway, so they have sold cheerfully and have leased the quarters which are being vacated by the Pacific Union Conference above their grocery store, where they will establish their home.

ATHLETES HONORED

The Athletic Association of the Intermediate school held a meeting Tuesday afternoon at which letters were awarded to the following boys. All who won letters had played in one or more winning games during the season just over. Mr. Harry Campbell coached the team.

The players were: Theodore Haig, William Morgan, Leslie Lavelle, Paul Bettis, Charley Johnson, Lionel Martinez, Nash Gilman, Thoman Wood, Fred Kennedy, Johnny Lovell, Lale Acosta, Robert Frazee, Walter Hertzog, Bartell Monselle, Pearce McMillan, all receiving small letters.

Harold Thompson received a star on a small letter.

BUSINESS EXPANSION

W. T. Ashton, the plumber, has moved his shop from the store formerly occupied by the Sierra Beverages Co. to 618 East Broadway, adjoining the French Electric Cleaners. When asked why he moved he stated that Mr. Sprenger, the baker, had leased the entire block and so it was necessary to seek new quarters.

Mr. Sprenger stated that his bread trade had trebled within a year and larger quarters were absolutely necessary to his expanded business. It is a wholesale trade, which is largely with Los Angeles, although he sells a considerable amount in Glendale.

The store Mr. Ashton has taken has been unoccupied for some time, and it is a great improvement to the street to have it in use again.

UNIQUE GIFT

REV. NORTON RECEIVES CHAIR MADE BY FATHER SEVENTY YEARS AGO

Rev. C. R. Norton of 801 East Wilson Avenue was made happy Tuesday by a gift from Constitution, Ohio, in the form of a chair made by his father seventy years ago. The chair was given to a young lady school teacher by Rev. Norton's father at the time it was made and this lady, Miss McClure, who is now ninety-two years old, has returned it knowing Rev. Norton will prize it highly. Rev. and Mrs. Norton spent a delightful week with this charming maiden lady when they were east the past fall and ate some squash which she had planted and cultivated, even spading the ground for the reception of the seed. Some of the seeds of this squash were included in her gift. Rev. Norton says he has very happy memories of Miss McClure's family, who were staunch Presbyterians, this lady herself being a teacher in a Presbyterian Sunday school for seventy consecutive years.

NEW P. U. C. HOME

FINE COMMODIOUS QUARTERS FOR EXPANDING WORK OF ORGANIZATION

The Pacific Union Conference is moving into its greatly improved quarters in the Glendale Hardware building and all members of the staff looked immensely pleased with the provisions made for their work and comfort. The space has been divided into several suites. For instance at the end of the corridor is a suite which faces west and overlooks the Glendale Sanitarium grounds, quite a charming prospect by the way. One of the rooms will be the office of Elder Christian and adjoining it the private office of Mr. Coffin. Another suite in the same corner will be used by Treasurer Emerson, Miss Bell, bookkeeper, and Miss Conner, stenographer. The front suite of two large rooms facing south will be used by Elder Stephens, Mr. Painter and Miss Sturgess, the stenographer. There will also be a room for the auditor, Mr. Raley, and for W. W. Ruble, who is at the head of the Young People's Missionary Volunteer work. This is the first time it has been possible to provide him with a desk. He has been traveling so constantly, however, he has not greatly needed it until now.

The inside suites which are lighted by sky lights are used for work rooms, supply rooms, rest rooms and reception rooms, etc.

There is a fireplace in almost every suite, the floors are of hardwood, the rooms are light and cheerful, with beautiful views in all directions, and it will be a very pleasant place to work.

COLORADO PEOPLE BUY HOME IN GLENDALE

Herman Schultz and wife, who recently bought the house at 1143 San Rafael Avenue, came to California from Fort Collins, Colo., a year ago, leaving their furniture stored with their son in Greeley, Colo. They stayed for a time in Redlands and then moved to Alhambra. But Glendale appealed to them not only as a city of beautiful homes, but because of its being a center of Seventh-day Adventist activities. Mrs. Schultz being a devoted member of that church. They sent for their furniture and now have it installed in the new home. They have a daughter, Hilda Caroline, completing a nurse's course at the White Memorial in Boyle Heights, and a son, C. Edward, taking the two-year medical finishing course in the same institution.

NEW P. E. TRACK CONSTRUCTION

Workmen are engaged in laying the new track for the P. E. Burbank line between Brand and Central Avenue. It is a few feet north of the present track, which is in the bed of the wash, and is laid on high levee forming the north bank, so as to be out of the way of future floods. The poles and wires for the trolley are already in place.

WEST BROADWAY BOOM

MANY BEAUTIFUL HOMES BUILT AND BEING BUILT ALONG SAID STREET

Perhaps in no other three blocks than those from Central west on Broadway to the old W. W. Woods ranch is there such marked improvements in building. Between Central and Columbus six or eight fine bungalows are seen, either completed or nearing completion. West of Columbus the greatest improvement is shown in the Osborne tract and those of Miss Gunderson and her family. Mr. Osborne has built and is occupying a beautiful home on his tract, which lies between Broadway and Wilson Avenue and extends west from Columbus Avenue to the Verity poultry ranch. Two other houses are rising near his and other lots have been sold on which houses will soon be started. Mr. Osborne came here from Montrose, Colo. Thirteen years ago he and E. F. Newell, an old friend from Iowa, who had come out here and married a daughter of Oliver Logan, Sr., bought the Albright tract of 25 acres lying between Broadway and Lexington Drive, then Fourth and Second Streets, and Columbus Avenue and the city limits, paying $20,000 cash for it. Mr. Osborne took that part lying between Broadway and Wilson Avenue, 10 acres, and Mr. (Continued on Page 4)

EDNA CLANCY TESTIFIES FOR BROTHER

TELLS OF HARRY NEW'S BOYHOOD AND OF HER EFFORTS TO PREVENT HIS MARRIAGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 31.—Miss Edna Clancy, 24 years of age, and a half-sister of Harry S. New, today began her effort to lift from her brother the blame for the death of his sweetheart and her chum, Freda Lesser. She was called to the witness stand this morning and began to unfold a strange story of her brother's boyhood. Miss Clancy told how, as a boy, her brother had preferred to play with her instead of with boys of his own age. He was eight years her senior. She told how she had gone to his room at night on several occasions and found him crying. When she asked him what he was crying about he had answered: "Nothing." After he had returned to Indianapolis from the Mexican border he told Miss Clancy that some one from Indianapolis was pursuing him wherever he went and telling tales about him. Up to this point Miss Clancy had made no reference to New's alleged unsanctioned parentage.

She was noticeably steeling herself for her part in the fight for New's freedom. As the climax to her testimony Attorney Lecompt Davis led Miss Clancy carefully through a recital of how she had attempted to prevent the marriage of her brother and Freda Lesser. She said she had talked confidentially to Harry one night urging him first not to marry and then to wait until her mother arrived from Indianapolis. She said Harry gave no answer. She then went to Miss Lesser.

"I told Freda Harry was not fit to marry," she testified. "Miss Lesser promised to consider it," she said.

"Did you know Miss Lesser was approaching motherhood?" she was asked.

"No. If I had, this never would have happened," she answered. "I mean I would not have interfered."

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BRITISH LABORITES REFUSED PASSPORTS BECAUSE ENGLAND IS WITHOUT DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

He will succeed Julius Kruttschnitt, whose resignation is effective tomorrow. DAYLIGHT BANK ROBBERY

OMAHA, Dec. 31.—Six armed bandits robbed the Farmers & Merchants National Bank at Benson, a suburb of this city, at 10:30 o'clock today of between $90,000 and $100,000 of Liberty bonds and $15,000 cash. They escaped in a large automobile after forcing eight customers and four clerks into the vault.

GEO. BOHANNON BUILDS

IS HAVING CONVENIENTLY ARRANGED BUNGALOW ERECTED ON MYRTLE STREET

It is not alone the large contractors and builders, those who erect houses by the dozen or score, who are responsible for Glendale's great advance in the construction of new homes during the past few months. Many citizens of only moderate means have devoted a part of their surplus to the building of one or two new homes. One of these is George P. Bohannon of 325 Myrtle Street. He owned the house next to him on the east at No. 321, which was formerly occupied by his brother, W. S. and his sister, Miss Elizabeth. They built them a beautiful home on North Maryland and even before they had moved into it, George had sold the house at 321 Myrtle to Miss Clara Boss, a teacher in the Los Angeles schools, who prefers to live in Glendale. Then Mr. Bohannon at once commenced the erection of a six-room bungalow just across the street from where he is living. W. S. Caldwell doing the work on it. This bungalow has a number of unique features that add greatly to its convenience as a residence. Mr. Bohannon will either sell this when completed or move into it himself and sell the one he now occupies.

AMBROSINI'S RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ambrosini arrived Monday evening from St. Paul to spend the winter in Glendale. They left a temperature of 15 below and over a foot of snow in St. Paul, so were delighted at the summer weather we are enjoying here. Mr. Ambrosini has extensive property interests in Glendale and will spend the winter looking after business affairs. He says he is not yet ready to begin the erection of the hotel he is planning to build at the corner of Broadway and Glendale Avenue. He is the owner of a large Memorial Park and Mausoleum in St. Paul, but hopes to turn that business entirely over to his son in another year and make his home in Glendale.

CALDWELL BUILDING SEVERAL HOUSES

W. S. Caldwell has about completed a seven-room bungalow on West Broadway, between Central and Columbus, for his own family to occupy and has another just east of it about half done. He also is building two west of Pacific Avenue on Broadway, one on Harvard, west of Pacific Avenue, and one on Myrtle, and will soon begin another in the 300 block on West Broadway.

H. SCHIMMER BUYS HOME

J. F. Chandler of the Log Cabin real estate office sold this morning to H. Schimmer, who has been living at the corner of Broadway and Belmont, the four-room house at 212 South Jackson belonging to Mrs. R. C. Newton.

J. W. IMLER IMPROVING

J. W. Imler of 316 West Lomita Avenue, who suffered a paralytic stroke several weeks ago, is getting able to walk around. One arm is still helpless, but he is able to converse readily with his family and friends and is glad to receive visitors.

TREE PLANTING

NAPOLEON LE BLANC URGES UNIFORMITY IN VARIETIES PLANTED

To the Editor Glendale Evening News:

Please allow me space in your columns to offer suggestions regarding the tree planting on Lincoln's birthday as proposed by the Forestry Department.

Wouldn't it be advisable to investigate the kind of trees predominating on each street, and prescribe those kind to be planted on those streets, to fill the vacant spaces, and as fast as the odd kinds of trees die or are removed to replace them with the kind required by the city ordinance, thereby in time we would have a uniformity of shade trees? There should also be a uniformity of distances between trees.

In the eighties Kansas City enacted such ordinances and ordered all odd kinds of trees to be removed. It caused large expense to the city, and the old fogies roared, but now they are reconciled and enjoy the beauty of their streets.

Yours for a beautiful city.
Napoleon LeBlanc.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions passed by N. P. Banks
Post, No. 170, Department of California and Nevada:

Whereas, Although the Central Powers, met with signal defeat, by force of arms, in their vision of world domination, they are persistently and tenaciously continuing the war by foisting deceptive propaganda upon the uninformed with an aim to destroy the governments of the Allies and thereby accomplish what they failed to with arms.

Therefore, Resolved that N. P. Banks Post, No. 170, Department of California and Nevada, unanimously condemn all persons who are not patriotic enough to establish beyond a doubt their loyalty to the government of the United States; second, that we fully endorse the acts of the world war legion in combating the L. W. W. and like abominations; third, that this country, so dear to us, through the endless cost of blood and treasure, shall not be polluted and dragged down to ruin so long as we have strength and intelligence to protect its glorious old flag.

Personals

Harold Eckleberger of McFarland is visiting Eugene Kille, at 465 Oak Street this week.

Stanley Frenz has moved into the house at 446 West Colorado that was owned and occupied by the late Marie Viohl.

Wallace Fryer of North Howard Street has sold his property and is moving to Redondo tomorrow, where he has purchased a home.

L. N. Hagood and wife of 215 W. Chestnut are having built a seven-room bungalow at 208 North Orange which they hope to have ready for occupancy by March 1st.

Mrs. C. F. Ireland is having the pleasure of entertaining her son, A. E. Ireland, and his family for a few days before they go north to the State of Washington.

The new kindergarten building for the Central Avenue school is about half completed and the foundation in place for the one at the West Glendale School.

Residents on Riverdale Drive plan to take in the tournament and football game at Pasadena tomorrow. The Farlander, Packer and Chase families are going together as a party.

Geo. Goodhue of Fresno, who is in charge of a branch store of the Wiley B. Allen Company at Fresno, spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Goodhue, of 319 North Jackson Street.

J. M. Leek and wife, who recently sold their home at 333 Vine Street, expect to move the first of the year into the house they own at 224 S. Louise and which R. P. Jodon and family have occupied for the past three or four years.

Census takers of the district met at the Chamber of Commerce in Los Angeles Saturday evening to be instructed by Mr. Dodson, census supervisor of this district, and by Mr. Sanderson of the census bureau in Washington. Olin Spencer of this city was present.

R. M. McGee, the dry goods merchant at 614 Broadway, who has been ill for several weeks, is again behind the counter but looks rather "peaked." He reports that he is recuperating steadily. Mrs. McGee is now confined to her home by an attack of lumbago.

A. E. Eckleberger and family of McFarland have been visiting numerous friends here during the past few days. Mr. Eckleberger was formerly in the grocery business on North Verdugo Road and later in partnership with T. A. Wright in the latter's building on East Broadway. He decided to try ranch life on account of his health, so sold out and moved to McFarland a few months ago.

A party of Glendale residents which will include Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Goodwin, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Eames, Dr. Emil Tholen and his sister, Miss Lucile Tholen, will take in the big dinner dance at the University Club in Los Angeles New Year's eve and the same party will motor to Pasadena the day following to enjoy the tournament and football game.

F. A. Alspach of 1213 Mariposa Street, who went east to visit relatives the middle of December, was fortunate in getting home in time to celebrate Christmas with members of his family. On Sunday night, however, his little son, Albert, became very ill of bronchial trouble, which threatened pneumonia. He is much better, however, and his parents are hoping he will make a swift recovery.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

George Anderson drove up from the Palo Verde country to spend Christmas with his mother and other relatives, bringing Mr. Harget of Glendale with him. Mr. Anderson's friend, Ed Weinners, also came with him and is dividing his time between Glendale and Los Angeles. George expects to return right after New Years. It is the first time he has been home for a year and Glendale looks very good to him. He makes most encouraging reports concerning the sale of his cotton crop. Heavy rains have caused some damage but nothing serious. The Anderson family was entertained on Christmas day by Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Higgins at their home on Adams and Wilson Avenue, the midday dinner being followed by a fine auto ride to Sunland and back.

MIDCALK FAMILY GATHERING

Miss Clara Midcalk has been entertaining the past week her brother, J. W. Midcalk, who is here from Saginaw, Mich., with his wife and little son. Mrs. Robert Midcalk of Honolulu is also a guest at the Midcalk home on the corner of Jackson and Harvard.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS TO HIKE UP MT. WILSON

A majority of the members of the Epworth Leagues of Glendale will see the sun rise on Mt. Wilson New Year's morning. They go by P. E. to Pasadena this evening and then walk up the trail, coming down in time to see the Tournament of Roses.

HOLIDAY PARTY

DR. AND MRS. BOYER PROVIDE
DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT FOR FRIENDS

Dr. and Mrs. H. Russell Boyer of 232 North Orange Street entertained with a very pretty Christmas party Monday evening. Poinsettias and greenery were used in decorations, and a buffet supper was served about the middle of the evening. Guests were entertained with music, clever charades and a most amusing mock trial in which four attorneys participated. It was a thoroughly jolly affair, the guests who enjoyed it being: Messrs. and Mesdames Warren Roberts, Charles Temple, W. E. Evans, H. P. Goodwin, Albert Pearce, W. H. Boothby, H. Frost, Harry Lockwood, Howard H. Martin of Los Angeles, Longworth Lucius of Los Angeles, Charles Fourl of the same city, A. W. Tower, Alfred Priest, Lou Sherman and Walter Stamps.

PRE-NEW YEAR FUNCTION

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley were host and hostess Monday evening at a beautifully appointed four-course turkey dinner which was a greeting in a way to the new year. The function was given in honor of Mrs. Fred Gilleland and little daughter of Winterset, Iowa, house guests in the Worley home. The place cards were handsome New Year favors, picturing a clock striking 12, and the souvenirs were little kewpies representing 1920. As it chanced to be the eighteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, they were toasted by the company. A huge bowl of narcissi and ferns centered the table, at which covers were laid for the guest of honor and small daughter, Dr. and Mrs. John Eames, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Eames, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, and the host and hostess. A pleasant social evening followed the dinner.

JURIST TO WINTER IN GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hayward who have just moved into their new home at 307 South Kenwood Street and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hayward of 428 West Lexington Street, on Sunday welcomed Judge and Mrs. Shumway of Danielson, Conn., who have come to spend the winter in Glendale. The judge, who is now retired from professional life, was formerly on the Supreme bench of Connecticut. His relatives took the precaution some time ago to secure an apartment for him at 114½ South Orange Street, so he and Mrs. Shumway are very comfortably established for the winter. They and the Haywards will take in the Rose Fiesta at Pasadena New Year's Day.

A GOOD LOSER

W. B. Kirk, the insurance man, is enjoying the fellowship of his co-workers today at a dinner given by Vail and Eldridge, general agents of the Provident Life and Trust Company in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mr. E. L. Eldridge, the Los Angeles manager, is greatly beloved by all of his men, and will be presented with a beautiful loving cup, setting forth this fact in its engraving, by the Southern California agents. "The Provident" has enjoyed a most prosperous year, having written almost double the volume of business in any previous year.

The Southern California agency has placed over three and one-half millions of insurances in the year and has won out in a contest with San Francisco by about $100,000. On a race for first honors in the Los Angeles agency Mr. Kirk lost to L. L. Test of Pasadena by about $16,900.

THIEVES TAKE TREASURES

Edward Pratt, who considers himself a Glendalian, lives as a matter of fact just over the Los Angeles line at 4651 Alger Street, is the victim of misfortune. While he was absent in Los Angeles thieves broke into his dwelling and robbed him of articles whose intrinsic value is about $30, but which were of far greater worth to him because they were family relics and keepsakes. His loss included silverware and a purse of money. He has reported the theft to local and Los Angeles police and hopes some of the things may be recovered through the pawn shops.

CHOIR PARTY

Members of the big vested choir of the First Methodist Church enjoyed a regular kid party last Friday night in the social hall of the church, about thirty persons being present. The ladies present wore short frocks and long hair and big hair bows, the men dressed in short pants. They played childish games such as drop the handkerchief and admired the pretty Christmas tree which bore a foolish present for each one and thus contributed to the merriment of the occasion. Christmas stockings containing nuts and candy were distributed by way of refreshments and like kid parties the affair broke up at an early hour. Miss Isgrig, leader of the choir, and Mrs. Randall, the organist, were each the recipient of a nice gift from choir members.

Yes, We Deliver!

Bank clearings in 24 principal cities of the twelfth federal reserve district increased from $1,191,986,000 in November 1918, to $1,626,120,000 in November, 1919.

A Happy New Year

On the threshold of another New Year we want to pause to thank our friends and patrons for the very liberal business accorded us during the past year. As one and all you soon turn the corner into the New Year, look back a minute over the road you have been traveling the past year. Have you saved anything for the "rainy day" that never fails to come? Have you been true to yourself and your family? If not, once more before you step out into the pure New Year call at our bank and make a deposit, if only of one dollar and in twelve more short months take another retrospective glance and see how much pleased you will be with yourself and with the way your dollars have multiplied from the one little seed you planted in our bank, January 1, 1920. We wish every young man in the community would start a bank account with the New Year. It would not mean much to us but it would mean lots to them. How many will make the experiment? This is our advice and like salvation, it's free. Try it. While the feeling of good fellowship is in the air and good resolutions are being made for the New Year, would it not be a good idea to resolve that you will save more money during the coming year than during the past one; then come in and open an account with us and then watch it grow.
